URGENT NOTICE

SUBJECT: MANDATORY GUIDELINES AND DEADLINE FOR ROUND-2 SEAT RESIGNATION

In accordance with the State NEET UG 2026 Information Bulletin and subsequent directives from the Medical Counselling Committee (MCC), the Counseling Board hereby notifies all concerned candidates regarding the strict protocol for resigning Round-2 joined state seats.

This window is exclusively open for candidates who have been successfully allotted a seat in MCC All India Quota (AIQ) Round-3 and choose to upgrade to the AIQ seat. Candidates must strictly adhere to the schedule and conditions detailed below:

1. Schedule for Resignation & Withdrawal

- Dates: 2nd October 2026 and 3rd October 2026
- Timings: 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM (IST) daily
- Strict Deadline: No requests, physical documentation, or reporting will be entertained after 5:00 PM on 3rd October 2026.

2. Compulsory Procedure for Withdrawal

- Physical Reporting: Candidates must physically report to their currently joined/reported state medical or dental college to execute the withdrawal formalities.
- Verification Documents: Candidates must present their official MCC Round-3 Allotment Letter to the college authorities upon arrival.
- Online Generation of Slip: It is the absolute responsibility of the candidate to ensure that their resignation letter/seat withdrawal slip is generated online via the official counseling portal by the college. Manual, handwritten, or offline resignations will be treated as null and void.

3. Penalties and Counseling Rules

- Forfeiture of Deposit: In alignment with MCC guidelines, the resignation of a joined Round-2 seat will result in the complete forfeiture of the candidate's security deposit.

- Exit from State Counseling: Candidates successfully processing their resignation under this window will be permanently barred from participating in any subsequent rounds of the Rajasthan State NEET UG 2026 Counseling.

All participating institutions and candidates are directed to comply strictly with these orders.
